

Hybrid Conference Options

Current Perspectives in Management of Bronchopulmonary Dysplasia Across the Care Spectrum

September 9, 2022

9 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Register Now

Optimizing long term care of infants with Bronchopulmonary Dysplasia

Audience:

Local and regional Pediatricians, Neonatologists, Pulmonologists, Gastroenterologists, Neurologists, Developmental pediatricians, Emergency physicians, Nurse managers, APPs, Case managers, Therapists.

Learning needs:

- Knowledge of the optimal delivery of inpatient care for infants with BPD
- Knowledge of developmental risks and methods of developmental assessment
- How to evaluate for feeding dysfunction
- Understanding of barriers to safe discharge to home and methods ease transition to outpatient environment
- Appreciation of pulmonary care needs of BPD patients in the outpatient setting
- Knowledge of long-term outcomes and morbidities of infants with BPD

Objectives:

After participating in this activity, the attendees will be able to:

- Recognize the value of interdisciplinary care for infants with severe bronchopulmonary dysplasia.
- Assess the developmental needs for infants with BPD and provide opportunities for developmental progress.
- Detect feeding dysfunction and
- Prepare a baby with BPD for safe discharge to home and ease transition to outpatient environment
- Manage outpatient pulmonary care of BPD patients
- Recognize the long-term outcomes of infants with BPD

2022 Agenda

Time	Talk Title	Speaker and Credentials
9:00-9:15	Welcome/Introduction	Pamela Griffiths, MD PCH Neonatology Co-director of BPD Program
9:15-9:45	Bronchopulmonary Dysplasia (BPD) and Interdisciplinary care Practices	Edward Shepherd, MD Nationwide Children's Hospital Chief of section of Neonatology Edward.Shepherd@nationwidechildrens.org
9:45-10:15	Optimizing Neurodevelopment for Infants with BPD	Tracey Bullock, M. S, M. Ed, Developmental specialist Margaret Christy, OTR/L, CNT Holly Wilson, PT PCH NICU Developmental therapy team
10:15-10:45	Evaluation and Management of Feeding Dysfunction in BPD	Dana Williams, MD PCH Gastroenterology Medical Director of Aerodigestive Program
10:45-11:00	Q&A	Moderator: Gregg Martin, MD PCH Neonatology Division Chief
11:00-11:30	Break
11:30-12:15	Considerations for Discharge and Easing Transition to the Outpatient Setting for Infants with BPD	Donna Garey, MD PCH Neonatology
12:15-12:45	Outpatient Care for Infants with BPD	Sophia Williams, MD PCH Pulmonology
12:45-13:15	Trajectory of Lung Function Over Time in BPD	Rajeev Bhatia, MD PCH Pulmonology Division Chief and Co-director of BPD Program
13:15-13:30	Q&A/Wrap-up	Moderator: Pam Griffiths, MD and Mohammed Elkhwad, MD FAAP
